

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH

Edinburgh Award (Peer Learning and Support Volunteer: LawPALS)

This award is given to students within the Edinburgh Law School whom the University has recognised for actively working to maximise their impact and excel as a peer assisted learning facilitator.

In successfully completing the Edinburgh Award, these students will have been helped to:

- increase awareness of their strengths
- make the most of their strengths, identify areas for development, and work on a plan to develop these skills
- confidently demonstrate what they have to offer to others
- achieve a positive and lasting impact
- look not only at what they have done while working with peers, but also to capitalise on their experiences elsewhere to inform and enhance their role as PALS facilitator, and vice versa
