

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH

Edinburgh Award (School of Social and Political Science: Professional Development)

This award is given to students within the School of Social and Political Science whom the University has recognised for actively working to maximise their impact and excel in their professional development role. These students have taken what they have learned from the School of Social and Political Science's Professional Development series and applied it within a variety of community-facing and project management roles.

In successfully completing the Edinburgh Award, these students will have been helped to:

- increase awareness of their strengths
- make the most of their strengths, identify areas for development, and work on a plan to develop these skills
- confidently demonstrate what they have to offer to others
- achieve a positive and lasting impact
- look not only at their professional development role, but also to capitalise on their experiences elsewhere to inform and enhance their role, and vice versa
